

Direct Plus Loan Steps:

1. Decide whether you want to borrow a specific amount or the maximum amount allowed
2. Go online to www.studentloans.gov to fill out the Application AND, if approved, the MPN

Once you have your PIN and are signed in...

The screenshot shows the StudentLoans.gov home page. On the left, a navigation menu lists various options. A yellow callout box labeled "1" points to the "PLUS Loan Process" section, which includes "Request PLUS Loan". Another yellow callout box labeled "2" points to the "Request a PLUS Loan" link in the main content area. A yellow text box at the top right says: "Start the PLUS Loan Process by choosing option '1' or option '2'". A red circle with a slash is drawn over the "Counseling" link in the left menu.

This screenshot shows the "What You Need" section of the application process. A yellow callout box says: "Be sure to complete the Application before the MPN." A red box highlights the "Parent PLUS" option, which is described as "Direct PLUS loans available to parents of dependent undergraduate students. Parents must be signed in with their own Federal Student Aid PIN." A green arrow points from the "Parent PLUS" option back to the "Request PLUS Loan" link in the left navigation menu.

The screenshot shows the "Request PLUS Loan (Step 1) - Personal Information" form. A yellow callout box says: "Complete ALL information Requested!!! Begin with Step 1, 'Personal Information'. Then complete Steps 2, 3, and 4." A green arrow points to the "Personal Information" step in the progress bar at the top of the form.

If your application is accepted, continue on to the MPN. If not, see the last yellow box...
